WORLD'S LAST HONORS TODAY TO BRITAIN'S DEAD KING

Ten Monarchs Will Be in Line Behind the Dead King—Funeral Will Be Solemn but Magnificent Affair.

THE LATE KING EDWARD AS A MASON.

LONDON, May 20.—Four hundred thousand people viewed the coffin containing the body of King Edward yesterday, the crowds surging into lines before Westminster Hall all day, a storm which drenched the city in the morning having no perceptible effect on the number who wished to pass the body lying in state. All night the people stood in the streets, waiting for the hour when the doors of the great hall would be thrown open for them.

Similar to Victoria's Funeral. The body of the monarch will be borne on a gun carriage through the streets of London to Paddington station and again through the streets of Windsor to the castle. The procession will be similar to that at the funeral of Queen Victoria in 1901.

Above the casket will be placed the royal insignia, the crown, orb and scepter. King George, mounted, will ride immediately behind the casket, followed by other masculine members of the royal family, foreign monarchs and special ambassadors.

Nine Ruling Monarchs.

Nine ruling monarchs besides King George V will attend the funeral of Edward VII. They are: William, Emperor of Germany and King of Prussia; Frederick VIII of Denmark; King Haakon VII of Norway; King Alfonso XIII of Spain; King Manuel II of Portugal; King Albert of Belgium; King George I of Greece; King Emmanuel III of Italy; and King Ferdinand of Bulgaria.

Foreign Representatives. Prince Fushimi will represent Japan; Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovich, younger brother of Emperor Nicholas, will represent Russia; Holland's representative will be Prince Henry, husband of Queen Wilhelmina, and Theodore Roosevelt, special ambassador, will represent the United States.

Selected Burial Spot. During a recent visit to Windsor Castle the late monarch visited the royal mausoleum in St. George's Chapel, when, it is said, he selected the spot in which he wished his body to rest.

Ten Monarchs Together. Yesterday the nine ruling monarchs from the continent, assembled here for the funeral, dined as guests of King George, the occasion being unique in the history of the world.

Will Mourn Alone. Immediately after the funeral of her husband it is expected that the Queen mother will retire to Sandringham Palace, which King Edward some years ago made over to her as a dowry house.

CLUNEY OUT ON $5000 BAIL BOND

Eddie Cluney, the slayer of J. M. Barlow, the latter being killed by an automobile driven by the former, was released from jail last night on a bond of $5000, the sureties being J. H. Swannick, E. C. Winston, Y. Ann and Yee Yee. The former secured his liability on the bond to $1000; Y. Ann to $1000; Yee Yee to $1500. The bond was approved by Circuit Judge H. E. Cooper. Sheriff Rose last evening by Attorney Lawless, who represents the defendant Cluney.

BIG CASH THEFT.

OIL CITY, Pennsylvania, May 19.—Packets containing $32,024 in cash were stolen from a railway depot in this city today.

STEAMER BURNED.

NEWPORT, Oregon, May 19.—News has arrived here of the burning at sea of the steamer J. Marthaler. No lives were lost.

Honolulu Will Suspend Business and Special Services Will Be Held at the St. Andrew's Cathedral.

Out of respect to the late King Edward, business will be suspended in Honolulu during a part of the regular business hours today. Public offices will close, those courts which have not already adjourned over the day will suspend, and the banks have announced that their doors will be shut at ten-thirty in the morning. They will reopen at one o'clock.

At eleven o'clock this morning in St. Andrew's Episcopal Cathedral a solemn service will be held in memory of the late King. The Right Rev. Bishop Henry Bond Restarick, assisted by the canons and clergy will officiate; the bishop delivering an address.

In the central portion of the church will be grouped officials of foreign governments represented here, and of the federal and territorial governments, the army and navy. Central among these official mourners will be His Britannic Majesty's consul, Hon. Ralph G. E. Forster; Governor Walter F. Frear and his staff; Secretary of the Territory E. A. Mott-Smith, Chief Justice Hartwell and the justices of the supreme court; Chief Justice Beatty, California supreme court; the circuit court judges, Federal Judges Sanford B. Dole and A. G. M. Robertson, United States District Attorney Breckons, Mayor Fern, Admiral C. P. Rees, United States Navy; Lieutenant-Colonel Wheeler, United States Army; Major Dunning, United States Army; Major Winslow, United States Army; Captain Pinto Basto of His Portuguese Majesty's cruiser San Gabriel; the members of the consular corps, and other officials and especially invited guests.

The guests will enter the church by the main or central entrance, and the public is requested to enter by the side entrances.

The order of service, which will commence at eleven o'clock, consists of an organ prelude from Chopin, played by Sydney Holden. The choir and choir being in place, the ritual for the burial of the dead will be said, following which the lesson taken from the First Epistle to the Corinthians will be read. Following a hymn, the bishop will deliver an address.

An anthem will then be sung, the words being taken from the twenty-first chapter of Revelation and the fourth verse: "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away."

The Apostles' creed will be said by the minister and people standing, followed by many prayers, concluding with the following special prayer for England: "Almighty and Everlasting God and Heavenly Father, who hast made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on the face of the whole earth, look down, we beseech Thee, with compassion upon our brethren of the British empire, whom Thou hast bereaved of their earthly ruler. Comfort and bless the members of the royal family in this, their time of trial and loss, and guard with Thy special blessing him who is called to the high office and great responsibility of king and emperor of so many millions of souls. Grant that the people may faithfully and obediently honor him in Thee and for Thee, according to Thy blessed word and ordinance; and that in all their trials and adversities they may put their whole trust and confidence in Thee, that so among the changes and chances of this mortal life the hearts of king and people may surely there be fixed, where true strength and safety are to be found, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, to whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen."

At the conclusion of the service, following the benediction, the British national anthem will be played, during which the people will remain standing in their places.

Mayor Fern has ordered the Hawaiian band to be present in the church grounds during the service, to play appropriate music for the solemn occasion.

PICKED UP $650 ON DOWNTOWN STREET

Six hundred and fifty dollars floated around in the downtown pavements last night until picked up by Lum Sun. But Lum Sun did not consider that possession was nine points of the law, for he took the money to the police station and turned it over to Deputy Sheriff Rose. The money is in the form of two checks, issued by a local bank, and made out to a Chinese. The checks were in a belt such as are commonly worn by Chinese.

BOOZE LEADS TO MURDER CHARGE

The Inquest Last Night in the Case of the Last Homicide.

USUAL STORY OF LIQUOR

Drunken Row Led to a Killing—Iola Andrew Charged With Murder.

Alexander Garner, a negro, and Iola Andrew, alias Iola, a part Hawaiian, both sodden with drink and inclined to be quarrelsome, fancied they had cause to be angry last Friday night and the negro was followed to the veranda of his wife's house, and there he received a blow upon the forehead from a stone thrown by the Hawaiian, who ran away that night and was found only on the Monday morning following sleeping in the dirty interior of a miserable shack in the Russian village at Iwilei. He was arrested on a warrant sworn to by Garner alleging assault and battery. That day the negro was taken to the hospital and on Wednesday morning he died. A post-mortem examination showed that the skull had been fractured and a piece of the bone had entered the brain, causing death.

The inquest was held at the police station last night, the jury rendering a verdict that "Alexander Garner came to his death on the 18th day of May, 1910, from a fracture of the skull and injury to the brain caused by being hit with a stone thrown by Iola Andrew while in a dispute with said Alexander Garner on May 13, 1910, at the Vineyard street camp, in Honolulu, Oahu."

And immediately following that verdict Deputy Sheriff Rose entered a charge of murder against Iola, who has been held at the police station since Monday.

On the fatal evening when the row took place Garner went to his wife's house to visit with her and their child. (Continued on Page Two.)

GREAT MYSTERY OF THE COMET

No Answer to Principal Question Scientists Were Studying.

SOME THEORIES SMASHED

Diamond Head and Kaimuki Observations Clear and Their Results Decisive.

Though the hundreds of people who tried to look at the sun during the hour of the comet's transit Wednesday afternoon found clouds in the way a part of the time, the astronomers at Diamond Head and Kaimuki had no such difficulty. They had a clear view of the sun, and they observed and noted the sun spots which mainland observers reported, as related in the cable dispatches. Hence their reports are quite decisive and authoritative, as far as the scope of their instruments goes. It was absolutely demonstrated that there is no large solid body in the head of the comet.

The reports of Professors Ellerman and Donaghoe, from Diamond Head and Kaimuki, tally with those called here as the result of various mainland observations. These results, as Professor Ellerman put it, were "negative."

The reports to be prepared by the various astronomers who have made observations all over the world will probably be followed by much discussion as to the composition of the comet. There has been much controversy in the past as to what sort of matter went to make up a comet. Much was hoped for from the records sought with the spectrograph, by Professors Lord and Coddington, who stationed themselves at Wai-lua, but their trip of six thousand miles for the purpose of taking such observations was made useless by cloudy weather.

Some theories led to expectations of great magnetic disturbances when the (Continued on Page Two.)

MARINES LAND WITH FIELD GUNS

Fighting at Bluefields Expected Between Armies of Rival Governments.

MADRIZ' MEN STRONGEST

American Troops Guard Interests of Americans in City to Be Stormed.

BLUEFIELDS, Nicaragua, May 20.—The forces of President Madriz have finally reached within striking distance of this city and a battle between the government forces and the army of General Estrada for possession of the town is imminent. Each army has about two thousand men but the forces of the government are the better armed and on the offensive.

In view of the possibility of the city being captured, the commanders of the American gunboats Paducah and Dubuque yesterday landed one hundred and fifty marines to protect American interests. The landing party is provided with field guns.

General Estrada is prepared to make a desperate last stand.

Should Doctor Madriz succeed in capturing this place it will be almost the death blow of the revolutionists' cause, as the latter have depended almost entirely upon the customs revenues here and at Cape Gracias a Dios to renew the fighting in the future. General Estrada has been collecting the revenues, paid in gold and silver, since October 10 last, and was confident of being able in a short while to finance a successful fight for the control of the western as well as the eastern part of the republic. Since the revolutionary control of the eastern part of Nicaragua commerce has grown.

FLANNERY GETS SPEEDY ACQUITTAL

SAN RAFAEL, May 20.—Former Police Commissioner Flannery, on trial for alleged grafting in connection with a wiretapping gang of swindlers, was acquitted yesterday, the jury being out for thirty minutes.

SCIENTISTS SAW NUMBER OF THINGS

Whether We Split the Comet's Tail or Not Appears to Be Open Question.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—Professor Campbell, who has been watching the comet phenomena from the Lick Observatory, announces that it is not probable now that the earth will pass at all through the comet's tail. That it had not done so up to last night was agreed by the scientist at that observatory, the failure of the expected to happen being accounted for by the fact that the tail acquired a sudden curvature, throwing out all the calculations previously made. That the transit of the comet across the sun occurred, is believed to be beyond doubt.

Bottled Some Tail Up.

BERLIN, May 20.—Observations of the transit of the comet were taken here yesterday from a balloon, the experiment being termed a success. During the day the balloon was sent up with bottles to gather air from the higher levels, the bottles being arranged to close automatically when the desired height had been reached. The air contents of these bottles will be examined to see if there be any meteoric dust present.

Spectrum Across Sun.

WILLIAMS BAY, Wisconsin, May 20.—A broad spectrum of light, extending across the face of the sun for a considerable distance on each side, has been observed at the Yerkes observatory.

The Tail Did It. CAMBRIDGE, May 20.—Professor Pickering of Harvard gives as his opinion that the spectrum observed at the Yerkes observatory was caused probably by the presence of the comet's tail between the sun and the earth.

CAPTAIN BLACK, KAMAAINA, DIED YESTERDAY IN EAST

Was Once Owner and Editor of Advertiser—Founded Gazette and Kuokoa—A Veteran and Forty-Niner.

THE LATE CAPTAIN JAMES H. BLACK.

Capt. J. H. Black, kamaaina, veteran of the Civil War, forty-niner, adventurer and one of the best-known and most respected men who ever lived in Honolulu, is dead. Yesterday afternoon, James L. McLean received a cablegram announcing the sad news, death having found the old man in his boyhood home near Philadelphia.

Captain Black was a resident of Honolulu from 1865 until a few months ago. He held several positions of trust in the Hawaiian government at different times and for ten years was an owner and a part-owner of The Advertiser, having purchased this paper from H. M. Whitney, the founder, in 1879, being for a short time the editor. The Hawaiian Gazette was published by the deceased as well as the Kuokoa.

For a number of years, owing to his advanced age and also to the fact that wounds received in the Civil War were bothering him, Captain Black had been in bad health. It had been expected that a trip East would benefit him, but since his arrival in the East, reports of continued ill health were received by his relatives here. A short time ago word was received that he had had a stroke of apoplexy, and the cable news of his death yesterday was not unexpected.

Interesting Career.

Captain Black was born near Philadelphia in 1830 and had an interesting career, being numbered among those whose names are inscribed in the book of fame of the Pioneers of California, for he first went to the Golden State in 1849, when the gold fever was felt throughout the whole Republic. He (Continued on Page Four.)
